

LEARN BASIC BRIDGE IN A WEEKEND

with Andrew Kearsley

16TH – 17TH FEBRUARY 2019
OR 2ND – 3ND MARCH 2019

15 THIRD AVENUE, HOVE, BN3 2PB

BRIDGE is an engaging game of two halves – the bidding and the playing of the cards.

Come along with, or without a friend and learn the basics of both, on one of our brand new two day courses at The Avenue.

Places are limited to 16 players each weekend, to allow for individual help and lots of hands-on experience, so if you're interested, book early. No prior bridge knowledge is necessary (but some grasp of card playing might be helpful).

It's 9.30am - 4.30pm each day, with breaks. £75 for the weekend includes tuition, light lunches, refreshments and printed materials to remind you of the various topics covered.

These fun and informative days will be run by Andrew Kearsley and Helen Dawson, who are keen to show you that bridge is a fascinating game that can be played at so many different levels. And that you're never too young or too old to learn...
